From The Secretary, Bangalore Gayana Samaja, Petition dated 20th February 1933

Requests that the Gayana Samaja maybe exempted from the provisions of the Entertainment Tax Regulation for reasons given Exemptions from payment of Entertainment Tax under the Regulation No VIII of 1932 are provided for under section 8 (1) (2) thereof.

2 The provisions of the said Regulation have not yet been extended to any part of the State under 1 (3) of the Regn

3 The question of granting the exemption prayed for will perhaps have to be considered after the Regulation is brought into force, in consultation with the D C if the Samaja is deserving of ~~exemption~~ exemption

Section 8 of the Amusements Regulation provides for the grant of exemptions from the payment of the tax, sub-section (1) thereof provides for the exemption of specified kinds of entertainments and sub-section (2) for the exemption of entertainments in general

10 For the present, it is perhaps sufficient to deal with each application for exemption as it comes up & it may not be necessary or expedient to grant any general exemption to particular classes of entertainments, under Sub-sec (2).

11 Section 12 (9) of the Regulation enables Govt to make rules for the presentation and disposal of applications for exemption from payment of the tax and the rules issued already do not cover this Action will have to be taken to frame the necessary rules

12 The application of the Bangalore Gayana Samaja for exemption need not perhaps await the framing of the rules & may be considered & disposed of now. Having regard to the Objects of the Samaja mentioned in the Memorandum of Association the entertainments conducted by the Samaja may be deemed to fall under Sec 8 (1) (c) and the exemption granted Since according to the rules framed under the Regulation the Dy Com is to administer the Regulation, the DC Bangalore may, if necessary be consulted regarding the request of the Samaja

19 Entertainment provided by certain societies are exempt under S 8 (1)(c) of the legislature and clearly the Nagarai Samaja does not come under that category

20 The said section provides for entertainments being exempt the whole of the takings of which are devoted to Philanthropic religious or charitable purposes and the point for consideration is whether the activities of the Samaja, the preparation of music come under any of those headings I do not think that they can be classed as such bearing it is so, they have to satisfy the conditions as laid down in S 9 that not more than 25% of the

From The D.C. Bangalore District
No L Dis 1188/32-33 dated 28th June 1933 Recommends that the exemption asked for by the Gayana Samaja may be granted, as the institution is not run for earning profit

2 Accounts showing Income & Expenditure of the Samaja from April 1931 upto end of March 1933 have been furnished
It will be seen from the statements enclosed that the Samaja has not made any profit during the period the Memorandum of Association of the Samaja contains clauses in which it has been stated that no profit shall be made

3 The D.C recommends the grant of exemption as prayed for.

42 The list of exemptions sent with the P.U.D shows that, certain Sangeetha Sabhas and Dramatic associations are exempted in Madras, apparently on the ground that they are registered under the Indian Act XXI of 1860, Corresponding to the Mysore Societies Registration Regn, 1904

43 The adoption of the same principle here is for consideration The exemption, if granted, will be subject to the condition that the concerned bodies should periodically submit accounts & prove that no portion of the profits is shared by individual members

Exemption of Gajanadasavaja under the Mysore Amusements Tax Regulation

General and Revenue Secretariat | File No 41 / 75 of 1932-33 | [App F III—2

Serial No

44 In Madras, institutions registered under the Societies Registration Act (XXI of 1860) have been exempted from payment of the entertainment tax. The reason for such exemption apparently is That in such registered Societies or Associations the profits are not divided among the individual members. The corresponding Regulation in Mysore is Societies Registration Reg of 1904. Accordg to Sec 15 even on dissolution of the Society, the property cannot be distributed among the members but should be given to some other Society.

45 We may also exempt under Sec 8(2) of the Amusements Tax Reg all institutions registered under the Societies Registration Reg. The exemption may be subject to the condition that they submit their accounts for past periods & that individual members do not share in the profits.

46 This will also tend to induce Associations to register themselves & conduct their business on regular lines.

To

The Secretary to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore (Legislative Department) Bangalore.

Sir,

I am directed by the Executive Committee of the Bangalore Gayana Samaja to request you to be so good as to move the Government to exempt the Samaja from the provisions of the Entertainment Tax Regulation to come into force from the 1st April next.

The Samaja was started 27 years ago and H.H. the Maharaja has condescended to become the patron of the Samaja and the Dewan its vice patron. The Samaja is intended entirely for the propagation of Music without any monetary benefit for any of its members ~~of the Samaja~~ That this is so will be seen from the Rules giving the aims and objects of the Samaja and articles of Association (copies of which are enclosed for ready reference) The samaja has also been registered under the Societies Registration Regulation. (Certificate Copy attached)

In these circumstances, I am to request that early orders of the Government may be issued in the matter, so that the Samaja may be enabled to arrange for its monthly performance as usual in the month of April without the necessity of paying any tax which if enforced will only lead to the closing of the Samaja which has been doing very useful work for the last so many years in the cause of the encouragement of the Fir Arts of Music in the City of Bangalore. The reason f exemption of this Samaja has been also urged to the Government even at the time of the consideration of the Bill by the Select Committee and we have been informed that provision has been made in the Act of exempt Societies like this Samaja from the provisions thereof.

Early orders are solicited in the matter.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

55 Seshadripuram,
Bangalore City
20th February 1933
